PROCEEDINGS

THE LAW CLERK: Landmark Legal v EPA, Number 12-1726.

2.2.

THE COURT: I have been wondering what has been going on here because I noticed in the docket that discovery was going to be completed in December and I hadn't heard from you all since then.

MR. FERGENSON: Thank you for your time, Your Honor. Arthur F. Ferguson on behalf of Landmark Legal Foundation, movant, for an order to compel in the deposition of the Former Administrator of the EPA, Lisa P. Jackson. The deposition is today. We thank Ms. Jackson for coming from California to appear, and she's leaving tomorrow.

This Court's ruling will also apply, by necessity, to the deputy administrator, whose deposition also foundered on this same subject matter. I appeared before this Court in the prior action by Landmark against EPA that resulted in the order of contempt issued by this Court concerning the preservation of documents.

As this Court ordered, limited discovery has been ongoing with the cooperation of the government. And Landmark depositions — this may be the final deposition in the series on two topics. And the Court explained on Page 14 of its August 14th, 2013, order, Document 39, that one of the reasons why this Court was ordering the limited discovery — and this goes to Item 2 of the limited discovery, whether the EPA initially excluded the administrator, deputy administrator and/or chief of staff from Landmark's FOIA request.

And this Court explained the possibility that the agency purposefully excluded the top leaders of the EPA from the search, at least initially, suggests an unreasonable and bad faith reading of Landmark's FOIA request and subsequent agreement to narrow its scope. There is no question, and we've established that the initial e-mail to everyone, but directed toward the FOIA administrators of the administrator and deputy administrator, went out on October 23rd, and no search of the deputy administrator was performed until April 30th. No search of any repository. The deputy administrator, April 30th, well past the election.

And with respect to the administrator, no search was conducted for three weeks and a day following the time when the request went to everybody other than to the FOIA responsible officials for the administrator and deputy administrator. So, a three-week delay. And then from October to April 30th for the deputy administrator.

Now, that may be enough, but the language that this Court used in ordering the limited discovery suggests to us that we can probe for possible motive as to why this delay occurred. And the Court took into account the inconsistencies, reversal, which undermine confidence in the truthfulness of the briefing and affidavits.

We have Exhibits 60, 62, 63, which are independent sources, one is the Washington Post article, Exhibit 60; another is a December 2nd Final Report from the Administrative Conference of the United States; and the third is a speech by Cass Sunstein who headed up OIRA, the office in OMB that was the stopping point for — green or red light for the issuance of rules, OMB, you have to go through Cass Sunstein.

In both the Washington Post story and in the Administrative Conference report there are statements, this is what prompted — even before these reports — Landmark to file this, we wanted to know whether the brakes had been put on controversial rulings by EPA before the election. And then we would argue whether it was politically motivated or not. Both of these sources say that it was.

And the speech by Sunstein says — this is

Exhibit 63 — that going through the list in my head of the deputies with whom I worked on these meetings, the approval

meetings, Bob Perciasepe, who became the Acting EPA

Administrator, he's the Deputy Administrator. He was directed not to answer questions on this topic when we deposed him, and we continued the deposition to determine whether we would go forward, and now the question has been called.

Bob Perciasepe who became the Acting EPA

Administrator, an agency where he was number two for a long time, several others, and then end with Lisa Jackson at EPA.

And another article says that it was Ms. Jackson, this is Lisa Heinzerling, inside EPA, Exhibit 61, that says, the people who had authority to go to EPA, to go to OIRA, and say, please let us issue these rulings, were Ms. Jackson and Mr. Perciasepe.

Now, Ms. Jackson has already testified today that most of the meetings with were Mr. Perciasepe. And Mr. Perciasepe testified that he would meet frequently, at least every month or every two months. We have received one document in the production that we can locate, Exhibit 28, highly redacted, that speaks of a meeting in January of 2012 and a meeting in July of 2012, our range when we asked for the FOIA request. Everything else is missing.

Now, if he was meeting to try to get these rules approved, and the White House was saying, no, wait. If the articles are to believed, they're political — you know, we can't do it until after the election. There's a black hole here. We want to find out why there was — essentially this was not only blocked from initial search, but blocked from the very core search that we sought. And when there's time, we believe that we will present to the Court evidence that the search was done with a production or a responsiveness definition that excluded the very documents that we wanted.

We're looking to prove -- to probe -- we think we have the delay. We think there are other reasons why the search was inadequate, not for today, unless the Court wants to know, we want to probe the purposefully issue. There may be bad faith otherwise. The mere fact that there was no search of the deputy, the one most in contact with Cass Sunstein, who is reported to have said: No, no, not until after the election — is enough. But we want to ask the same questions of the deponent.

We have tried, and as we did with Ms. Browner, to treat the deponent respectfully. We are seeking information not to embarrass her. And as this Court noted in its order, Document 39, Ms. Browner, did not do anything wrong, it was the EPA that was held in contempt. We want the information. We don't know why the EPA delayed so long. We have our suspicions. We have our facts. And we want to say: How often did you meet with him? Did you talk about rule making? And then be able to present to this Court this black hole, and the reasons why, based upon sources that you would not expect to be in Landmark's corner, the Washington Post, the New York Times, Administrative Conference, not sources that would naturally be associated with the positions that Landmark generally advocates.

So, for those reasons, we want to respectfully move forward to lay the foundation for arguments which we will make, if we can, to this Court, that maybe there's a reason why they did what they did. Even without it we're entitled to 1 relief, and what they did was wrong. But this may color it 2 and this is discovery. We want to find it out. 3 We do not think that this has gone beyond the scope 4 of this Court's number two, as explained by this Court. 5 don't think, respectfully, that that gloss, that the 6 underlying reason can be ignored. 7 THE COURT: All right. 8 MR. FERGENSON: Thank you, Your Honor. 9 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Good afternoon, Your Honor. 10 Your Honor, I initially made --11 THE COURT: Let me get your name and the names of 12 the people with you. 13 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Excuse me? 14 THE COURT: Let me have your name and the names 15 with you? 16 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Certainly, I'm sorry. My name 17 is Heather Graham-Oliver, I'm an Assistant U.S. Attorney and I 18 represent the EPA in this matter. I also have with me Karen 19 Bennett, who is agency counsel for EPA, and Kevin Miller, who 20 is also agency counsel for EPA. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Bennett, you said? 22 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Miller. Bennett. 23 THE COURT: Bennett was first? 24 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Yes, sorry. 25 THE COURT: And Miller. Okay. And Mr. Coburn is representing the deponent?

MR. COBURN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Yes, Your Honor. Your Honor, as you know, on August the 14th of 2013 you issued a Memorandum Opinion. And in that Memorandum Opinion you indicated that Landmark could indeed conduct discovery limited to the following questions. And the first question was whether and to what extent the EPA administrator, the deputy administrator and/or chief of staff used personal e-mail accounts to conduct official business during the relevant time period.

Certainly, the Government has no objection to any and all questions pertaining to the relevant persons here, use of personal e-mail accounts, and in addition, the plaintiffs were not obstructed or the Government did not object to questions pertaining to Instant Messaging, questions pertaining to text messages. And all of that has been inquired into with respect to the deputy administrator and the EPA administrator.

Secondly, the other issue is whether the EPA initially excluded the administrator, deputy administrator and/or chief of staff from Landmark's FOIA request. I don't know if you recall, you probably do, that there was an issue initially as to whether or not the FOIA request landed with

1 the administrator and the deputy administrator, and there were 2 issues as far as the dates because there was initial requests 3 by the name of Jonathan Newton. He sends out an e-mail 4 request to program offices in the EPA in October 23, 2012. 5 And then there was an -- there is an e-mail dated 6 November 14, 2012, which indicates that he's sending out the 7 FOIA request to the administrator and the deputy 8 administrator. We had not included that initial -- that 9 November 14th, 2012 e-mail to our motion for summary judgment. 10 So, that did provide a problem for the Court. 11 As the Court -- we tried to explain to the Court 12 that there are FOIA coordinators in program offices, and that 13 Aaron Dickerson was the FOIA coordinator for the Office of the 14 Administrator. So, the FOIA request landed with the Office of 15 the Administrator with Mr. Dickerson. However, he did not 16 send it on to the relevant persons until November 14th, 2012, 17 and at that point both the administrator's office and the 18 deputy administrator's office got the FOIA request. So, I 19 just wanted to clarify that issue. 20 THE COURT: Both what -- I didn't hear it. 21 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Received the FOIA request for 2.2. the search. 23 THE COURT: In November? 24 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: In November 14, 2012, yes, he sent the FOIA request to Aaron Dickerson, who is special

1	assistant to the administrator, and an individual named
2	Nena Nena Shaw, who is the one who is responsible to do the
3	search for the deputy administrator.
4	So, we are proceeding with the depositions in
5	accordance with these two questions that were very relevant to
6	the Court in its decision in terms of whether or not a proper
7	search was conducted.
8	THE COURT: Well, on the second question then, what
9	you're representing is that it's true that the administrator
10	and deputy administrator were excluded from the initial
11	farming out of the request, right?
12	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No, they were not excluded,
13	Your Honor, because
14	THE COURT: They weren't included. However you
15	want to word it.
16	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No, actually what happens when
17	the FOIA requests comes into the EPA, it goes to a particular
18	office, and then this office decides who is going to take
19	charge of that FOIA request. It came to the administrator's
20	office. So, there was no question that it was within the
21	administrator's office. And then it got distributed to the
22	administrator herself, as well as the deputy administrator and
23	the chief of staff.
24	THE COURT: At the same time it was forwarded to others? I thought what you just said was it was --

1	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Yeah, it's a little bit
2	confusing. There are FOIA coordinators
3	THE COURT: The wording I had in my order was
4	"initially excluded."
5	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Right.
6	THE COURT: Are you quibbling with the wording or
7	were they initially excluded?
8	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No, I'm saying that they were
9	not initially excluded.
10	THE COURT: But it wasn't sent to them?
11	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: I'm saying that it was sent to
12	the administrator's office, although the administrator's
13	office was
14	THE COURT: By the requester?
15	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No. No. It was sent initially
16	to the EPA by the requester. The EPA then determined which
17	office it should go to, because there are a lot of program
18	offices
19	THE COURT: Okay. So, who decided that?
20	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: I believe it was the Office
21	of the FOIA office, the general FOIA office, yes.
22	THE COURT: And when did they decide that?
23	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: I'm not sure when they decided
24	that. August 29th.
25	THE COURT: August 29th?

MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Yes. 1 2 THE COURT: But then it didn't go to the 3 administrator and the deputy until some time in November? 4 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: It went to -- it actually went 5 to the FOIA coordinator for the administrator's office prior 6 to November. It may have been even prior to October 23rd. 7 THE COURT: Okay. But not on August 29th? 8 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Correct. 9 THE COURT: So, if I was talking about, in this 10 order, which is as I recall I was, they initially excluded the 11 administrator -- the initial action was on August 29th and it 12 did exclude the administrator and the deputy, right? 13 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No. 14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: So, the initial request was 16 received by the EPA on August the 20th, 2012. On August 17 the 21st, 2012, the EPA's national FOIA office acknowledged 18 the receipt of the request. Then the request was assigned to 19 the Office of the Executive -- to the Executive Office after 20 August 21st. So, the Office of the Secretariat received the 21 request after the FOIA office received it. And the Office of 22 the Secretariat received the request or was notified on 23 August 29th that the EPA's national FOIA officer sent a letter 24 to plaintiff granting the request for a fee waiver. 25

So, the Office of -- it's call OEX -- was notified

| Case 1:12-cv-01726-RCL | Document 47 | Filed 08/04/14 | Page 14 of 31/14

1	on August the 29th that EPA's national FOIA office had granted
2	the request for a fee waiver. Jonathan Newton is in the OEX
3	office. So, they received the request on August 29th.
4	Jonathan Newton is a FOIA coordinator and he would communicate
5	with other FOIA coordinators in the various program offices.
6	We don't know when these other FOIA coordinators
7	dispensed the FOIA request to the relevant people in these
8	other program offices. We only know when Jonathan sent the
9	request to the FOIA coordinator. Those people were his
10	contemporaries. So, all of them, including Jonathan, had the
11	responsibility of dispensing this request to the relevant
12	people. And Jonathan did so
13	THE COURT: But the administrator and the deputy
14	administrator are both relevant people?
15	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Correct.
16	THE COURT: And no one sent them anything in
17	August.
18	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: No one got anything at all.
19	The program administrator the program people didn't get the
20	request until October 23rd.
21	THE COURT: Okay.
22	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: So the request didn't go out at
23	all until
24	THE COURT: What happened October 23rd?
25	MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Jonathan

1 THE COURT: The administrator and deputy 2 administrator were excluded October 23rd? 3 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Well, no, Jonathan Newton was a 4 FOIA coordinator. So, Jonathan Newton sent the request on 5 October 23rd to other program coordinators, and those program 6 coordinators then distributed the request to the relevant 7 people in the program which were, in this instance, the 8 administrators and the assistant -- I'm sorry, the assistant 9 administrators and the chief of staff --10 THE COURT: Right. 11 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: -- in the programs. Okay. 12 don't know when these FOIA coordinators sent that request to 13 the assistant administrators and the chief of staffs in those 14 program offices, but we do know that Jonathan Newton, as the 15 FOIA coordinator in the Office of the Administrator, sent the 16 FOIA request to the administrator and chief administrator --17 I'm sorry, chief of staff, et cetera, on November 14th, 2012. 18 THE COURT: Some three weeks after he sent it to 19 everybody else? 20 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Yes. Three weeks after he sent 21 it to everyone --22 THE COURT: Doesn't that still mean they were 23 excluded? MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Three weeks after he sent it to 24 25 his contemporaries.

1 THE COURT: Right. 2 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: But we don't know when those 3 contemporaries sent it on to the assistant administrators. 4 THE COURT: Well, anyway, what is the objection? 5 What is going on? Who is it that's objecting to what? 6 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: I'm objecting, Your Honor. As 7 you know, this is a FOIA lawsuit, it's concerning documents. 8 And the question that was asked was: During 2012, did you --9 it was asked to the administrator, the former administrator, 10 Lisa P. Jackson -- did you have occasion to talk with Cass 11 Sunstein or others at OIRA, that's the Office of Information 12 and Regulatory Affairs, as to or about whether rules could be 13 issued by the EPA? 14 And I had an objection to that because it did not 15 apply to any of the -- I didn't think that the limited 16 discovery that you ordered with respect to the use of the 17 e-mail or the exclusion of the administrator, this question 18 was pertinent to those two very direct questions. And I would 19 also object to any issues pertaining -- substantive questions 20 pertaining to rules that the EPA issued during this time, 21 because that's not relevant to what we're here about today. 22 THE COURT: In this round. 23 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: In this round, Your Honor. 24 In this round. 25 THE COURT: Once I find that they were initially

     excluded, you're going to have another round, aren't you?
 2
               MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Looks that way.
 3
                THE COURT: Okay.
 4
               MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Also --
 5
                THE COURT: So, what are we doing here now?
 6
               MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Well, we want to clarify
 7 exactly the extent and the scope of your two issues that you 8 listed in your Memorandum Opinion, number one, so that we 9
     don't have a continued battle in this regard.
10
               And, two, Your Honor, I'm glad you said "in this 11 round" because, again, the sufficiency of the search is still 12
     at issue.
13
                THE COURT: I understand.
14
               MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Everything is still at issue.
15
     And the Government is aware of that as well.
16
                THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Coburn.
17
               MR. COBURN: Thank you so much, Your Honor. Very 18 briefly. Good afternoon, Your Honor. Barry Coburn for the 19 deponent.
20
                THE COURT: Your client says: Just let me out of 21 here.
22
               MR. COBURN: I think I heard her say just that,
23
    Your Honor. I just wanted to let the Court know that 24
    Ms. Jackson has no position with respect to this issue at all.
25
     She's not refused to answer any questions. She's here voluntarily. She's agreed to be deposed here as opposed to in California. I just wanted to convey that to the Court.

THE COURT: I appreciate that. Mr. Ferguson.

MR. FERGENSON: Thank you, Your Honor. There will be occasion for parsing out the different offices. I would ask the Court, if the Court has any questions, to look at Exhibit 1, where Mr. Newton was sending it to the FOIA coordinator for the administrator and the FOIA coordinator for the deputy administrator said: Sorry for the delay. I should have sent this to you originally.

And then Exhibit 54. And with the consent of the Government, we have provided a set of exhibits that have been marked for the Court's perusal. And that shows that Nena Shaw, the FOIA coordinator for the deputy, and Mr. Newton, saying: Done anything? Done anything? Done anything? Uh-huh. What am I supposed to do? And she's in another position at the EPA, and she never did it. And it wasn't done until April 30th.

So, there was a delay. We want to probe the underlying rationales because, you know, why would they do the delay? Also, the deposition established, Your Honor, something important about Ms. Shaw. No one has filed a complaint against her. No one disciplined her for this or any other purpose.

Now, you can say that's the bureaucracy, you don't want to take that on. But there was no administrative proceeding brought against her, no black mark. So the presumption is she was doing exactly what people expected her to do, which was, in the deputy's case, nothing. Now, Your Honor, you're absolutely correct, we can wait and do this in another round. We would propose, and if the Court wants to consider it today, the issue of next steps. We have taken five depositions — this is the fifth. We would propose —

THE COURT: Who did you depose?

MR. FERGENSON: We deposed Aaron Dickerson, who was the special assistant to the administrator, and handled her FOIA searches. We deposed Mr. Newton, who was the FOIA coordinator. We deposed Eric Wachter, who was his superior and head of the Executive Office. And at EPA we deposed the then and current deputy, Mr. Perciasepe, who had the most contact with Cass Sunstein, according to all the reports. And we include the reports, Your Honor, because this kind of dispute can be highly charged, and we wanted to make sure that Your Honor knew that we were not fishing and that we were looking at sources that would be considered in the context to be more reliable than not, and a variety of them for this purpose, and Ms. Jackson. We can do it in the second round, but what we would propose to do, whether the Court grants our motion to compel now or not, would be to file the depositions with the Court with what we consider to be serious issues relating to representations made to this Court in filings, which we believe to be materially misleading or inaccurate.

And other actions, including two unchanged declarations, where Eric Wachter said that we made — we decided what was responsive by limiting number two to only those decisions to postpone which were made for political reasons. It appears in both. When we raised this in his deposition, no substitute declaration has been filed before this Court.

But we think, Your Honor — think about it, it was our reason, we thought, that this was being done for political reasons. EPA can't act for partisan political reasons. So what they've done is they've defined out the entire universe of relevant documents. So, we're going to present this to the Court, we're going to present the delays. We're going to present everything we found. We even have an admission by the Court that — I mean by the Government on the record — that the administrator texted, using your government phone, for official purposes.

And we have admissions from both Mr. Dickerson, and supported by the testimony of the administrator, there was no preservation of any text messages. They were not sent to her secondary account to preserve, so that a search of her secondary account wouldn't find it. And that raises serious issues about the adequacy of the search and when they did the search, Your Honor.

When they did the search, as the April 30th date came up and they asked for a postponement, that was the first time that the deputies — any repository of the deputy's was searched. And even though the general counsel was brought into this at the beginning, the Office of General Counsel, and there's been explanations in Exhibit 1, you'll see it — we can't give you search terms. Do the best you can. It's too vague.

On April 29th when they figured out the documents they received from other offices should have been found in the administrator's search, the Office of General Counsel came up with a search term by the next day — a string of search terms. That was applied to the administrator's and deputy administrator's account, and it produced a ream of documents. They were reviewed for attorney/client privilege, for responsiveness, for duplication, and produced in two weeks. But that same range of search terms was never applied to any of the other offices or repository searches. Not one.

So, by definition, this is an inadequate search.

We can do it — and ask for the Court's guidance in walking us through the steps. We would propose to provide the Court with as clear — and understanding this is possible with the consent of the Government, we provided you with copies of marked deposition exhibits so far — pretty much all of them, a few missing -- and outlined what we want to do, and possibly 1 2 ask for partial summary judgment, and seek a scheduling order to go forward. 3 The text message problem, doing government work on 4 5 it, and then not kept and not searched. They were never 6 searched, the text messages. We also have a situation where 7 the BlackBerry that the administrator has was turned in to 8 whoever -- the administrator's office -- that, to our 9 knowledge, has never been searched. So, the text messages, as 10 far as we know, only sit on a BlackBerry that doesn't exist, 11 which raises issues of spoliation, which this judge set forth 12 as a possible issue in the footnote in which this Court said 13 in its first order, you know, I had that before, but I see no 14 reason to do it now because the litigation hold order went 15 out. The litigation hold order never applied to the text 16 messages. 17 And we have personal use --18 THE COURT: I don't know about that. 19 MR. FERGENSON: It didn't. There was nothing --20 THE COURT: It didn't apply by them. 21 MR. FERGENSON: It didn't apply by them.

litigation hold order notice that went out October 23rd -
THE COURT: If you talk to any law firm in town, I think they expect their clients to hold everything.

22

24

25

MR. FERGENSON: Yes, they do. And, you know, whether the Office of General Counsel, what they did or didn't do, that, as far as we know is gone, and no effort was to preserve them on a contemporaneous basis. So, we'd like to finish this today. If the Court wants to rule against us, we'll have another round. And —

THE COURT: No, I would say in terms of ruling that the question, as presented, under the standard I have could lead to the discovery of discoverable information, and therefore, there's no basis for the client to be instructed not to answer the question. If the question presented as some sort of presidential or deliberate process privilege, or something else, obviously that's going to have to be briefed and argued, but that's not the presentation that was made.

The presentation that was made was it's beyond the purview of what they think is relevant discovery. I don't agree. So, I would hold it's within relevant discovery. The witness cannot be instructed not to answer. The witness has to answer. Where we go from there then after this deposition is concluded, I think you all can talk with the Government about how you want to present it to me. I'm willing to set a status conference and talk about what the most efficient way to go forward for the next round is. But clearly from what I've heard today there's going to be another round, so we may as well figure out how to do it most efficiently.

MR. FERGENSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. 1 2 MR. FERGENSON: We would certainly be here to have 3 a status conference to work it out most efficiency for both 4 sides and the convenience of the Court. 5 THE COURT: Okay. MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Just for clarification sake. 6 7 If my objection to a particular question has to do with the 8 deliberative process --9 THE COURT: Right. 10 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: -- of privilege, how would you 11 wish that we handle that? 12 THE COURT: Well, you can decide whether to 13 instruct the witness not to answer. They can move to compel 14 orally or in writing, not while she's waiting around on a 15 question like that. Obviously, you're going to have to brief 16 it and argue it, and whoever wins, wins, and whoever loses 17 pays attorney fees and the cost of the witness to come back or 18 whatever. So, you know, how --19 MS. GRAHAM-OLIVER: Okay. All right. I'm not 20 going to go into the substance of any -- I don't want to 21 answer word for word what plaintiffs' counsel has said here 22 today, I think that is for another day. But, of course, there 23 is -- I think that we have some defenses to what was said here 24 today. 25

THE COURT: I will say to both counsel, right now I

2	go for six months. So, to the extent we can move this along
3	before I get bogged down, the better off we'll all be. So,
4	I'm ready, willing and able to set this status as promptly as
5	you all can get together and get this case moving.
6	MR. FERGENSON: Thank you for the hearing and your
7	time.
8	THE COURT: Sure. Thank you all. Thank the
9	administrator the former administrator for her patience in
10	going through this process. You can tell her how this works,
11	Mr. Coburn, as well as I can.
12	MR. COBURN: Okay.
